

Purpose: Introduce the foundation session.

Facilitator: Outline the pre-test, reading problem and introduction to LITRE shown on the agenda.

Participants: Follow the session outline and prepare to respond to the pre-test.

Purpose: Elicit views on the reading crisis.

Facilitator: Read the question and the two choices without adding an answer.

Participants: Choose True or False.

Purpose: Review the displayed survey results.

Facilitator: Compare the displayed counts, 04 and 16, with the question; identify them as the results shown on this slide.

Participants: Compare the displayed responses with your own view.

Purpose: Explain the reading problem described in the presentation.

Facilitator: Summarise the links between early literacy, later learning and the systemic consequences listed.

Participants: Consider how these difficulties appear in your classroom.

Purpose: Frame the problem LITRE addresses.

Facilitator: Read the question about making blending concrete, visible and memorable.

Participants: Consider how a learner can experience constructing a word.

Purpose: Explore perceived causes of the reading crisis.

Facilitator: Read the four possible contributors shown.

Participants: Select the contributor you consider greatest.

Purpose: Introduce I Learn to Read English Using the LITRE Method.

Facilitator: Point out the vowels, consonants and blending place in the palm illustration.

Participants: Observe how the picture represents bringing letters together.

Purpose: Explain why LITRE was developed.

Facilitator: Retell the experience on the slide, distinguishing memorising a familiar story from breaking down and reconstructing words.

Participants: Notice the difference between recall and blending.

Purpose: Summarise what LITRE is.

Facilitator: Explain the visual, practical, participatory and structured features, following Story, See, Do, Blend, Read.

Participants: Follow the sequence and the Learn, Introduce, Teach, Repeat, Encourage wording.

Purpose: Introduce the practical session.

Facilitator: Outline the palm, English Family, vowels and LITRE Blending Machine activities in the displayed order.

Participants: Prepare to draw and use the palm.

Purpose: Create the palm teaching aid.

Facilitator: Demonstrate drawing the outline shown, keeping the palm and fingers clear.

Participants: Draw the palm.

Purpose: Introduce the Who is Leaving HOME? palm layout.

Facilitator: Point to HOME, the CV song and the vowel positions and paths exactly as drawn.

Participants: Add the displayed positions to your palm and follow the paths.

Purpose: Introduce vowels and consonants through the English Family.

Facilitator: Use the illustrated family story to identify the two letter groups.

Participants: Recognise and name the letters in each group.

Purpose: Make the letter flashcards.

Facilitator: Demonstrate three folds to make eight pieces per A4 sheet, then cutting and lettering as instructed.

Participants: Use three to four sheets and write A to Z on separate cards.

Purpose: Practise the first LITRE Sign Language Game.

Facilitator: Demonstrate the displayed three-hand, two-hand and one-hand word examples.

Participants: Practise the listed words using the demonstrated hand sequence.

Purpose: Practise the second LITRE Sign Language Game.

Facilitator: Demonstrate the English and Nguni examples with the meanings shown.

Participants: Repeat the displayed examples using the hand sequence.

Purpose: Introduce the vowel group and fixed positions.

Facilitator: Point to a, e, i, o, u on the palm and say the sounds using the pictured examples.

Participants: See the letters, say the sounds and remember their positions.

Purpose: Reinforce the vowel sequence through movement.

Facilitator: Demonstrate the five small forward hops, pronouncing the next vowel on each hop.

Participants: Carry out the displayed A, E, I, O, U activity.

Purpose: Practise rapid vowel recall with the number map.

Facilitator: Explain 1=A, 2=E, 3=I, 4=O, 5=U and demonstrate a call and response.

Participants: Pair up: A calls a number, B says its vowel, then switch roles.

Purpose: Explain the LITRE Blending Machine.

Facilitator: Show the palm as the meeting place, vowels in fixed positions and consonants moving in; demonstrate blend then read.

Participants: Follow the letters coming together and say the blended word.

Purpose: Introduce oral practice and classroom application.

Facilitator: Outline the t, m and p blending, word construction, classroom use, assessment and reflection agenda.

Participants: Prepare for the oral demonstrations and application activities.

Purpose: Blend t with the vowels.

Facilitator: Demonstrate ta, te, ti, to, tu using the pronunciation cues printed in the table.

Participants: Repeat the blends while following the palm positions.

Purpose: Blend m with the vowels.

Facilitator: Demonstrate ma, me, mi, mo, mu and refer to the meanings shown.

Participants: Repeat the blends and follow the table.

Purpose: Construct the six-letter word tomato.

Facilitator: Select to, ma and to as illustrated, then blend them in order.

Participants: Follow the selections and read to-ma-to as tomato.

Purpose: Blend p with the vowels.

Facilitator: Demonstrate pa, pe, pi, po, pu using the printed sound cues.

Participants: Repeat the blends while following the palm positions.

Purpose: Apply LITRE to catch-up classroom support.

Facilitator: Explain identifying difficulty, practising systematically and monitoring progress using the three sections.

Participants: Consider the sounds or blends requiring support and the next practice step.

Purpose: Plan a classroom activity.

Facilitator: Explain choosing a learner group, selecting an activity, demonstrating and assessing.

Participants: Plan a short activity, prepare materials and describe how you will check understanding.

Purpose: Review knowledge, practical demonstration and application.

Facilitator: Explain the three assessment areas and demonstrate what the palm activity involves.

Participants: Answer questions, demonstrate with a partner and share your classroom plan for feedback.

Purpose: Reflect and plan the next action.

Facilitator: Use the What did I learn?, How will I use it? and My action plan prompts.

Participants: Identify one activity to try, daily practice and how to monitor progress.

Purpose: Consolidate the workshop and classroom next steps.

Facilitator: Thank participants and recap daily palm use, blending, worksheets and progress monitoring.

Participants: Review your next steps, then continue to the final presentation slide.

Purpose: Consider pronunciation and silent letters in ISLE.

Facilitator: Read the displayed question and options; demonstrate the spoken word and invite discussion without changing the slide.

Participants: Say the word and discuss the displayed choices.
